

Purpose Statement

The purpose of the Baptist Fellowship Association shall be to promote the establishment of Bible believing Baptist churches of like faith through means of encouragement, fellowship, and financial support; to foster the spirit of evangelism; to spread the Gospel; to advance the cause of Christ through mutual efforts in Christian education and missions—both at home and throughout the world; to promote the institution of the family; and to maintain a pure testimony of Jesus Christ by separation from worldliness, modernism and apostasy.
(Matt. 28:19-20)

About Central Seminary

A history of transforming students to become effective spiritual leaders.

Christian leaders must model a transformed life. Central is committed to seeing students transformed so that they will become effective spiritual leaders for Christ-exulting biblical ministry.

Central Seminary graduates serve in ministry in nearly every state of the United States, as well as in mission works on many foreign fields.

Biblical Ministry Tuition Aid

Central Baptist Theological Seminary is offering a $5,000 scholarship tuition aid for any member/pastor of a church in the Baptist Fellowship Association.

This tuition aid is to be awarded annually and is designed for anyone seeking graduate or postgraduate level education.

Candidates may pursue this tuition aid by applying for admissions at Central Baptist Theological Seminary at www.centalseminary.edu and scrolling to the bottom of the page for Application & Aid.
